

Who Are a

30 responses

Which hospital do you work for

30 responses

Gender

30 responses

Age

30 responses

1.Space

Is there enough space for medical equipment?

30 responses

Do patients have enough space to keep their personal belongings?

30 responses

Do patient's personal belongings sometimes interrupt treatments?

30 responses

Is there adequate space for a caregiver?

30 responses

In which circumstances the curtain will be pulled up? (multiple choices)

30 responses

The tone of a patient's room

30 responses

The architectural material used in a patient's room(multiple choices)

30 responses

The color of light in a patient's room

30 responses

The light level in a patient's room

30 responses

Is there any decoration in a patient's room?

30 responses

How many TVs are there in a double patient's room?

30 responses

How often does a patient watch TV?

30 responses

When do patients mostly turn on the TV?

30 responses

Does the hospital limit the TV time?

30 responses

4.Odor

The odor in a patient's room

30 responses

Your acceptance of the odor

30 responses

5. Nurse call button

How often does a patient press the button?

30 responses

The reason of pressing the button

30 responses

6. Position of a patient

The most common angle of the patient's bed back

30 responses

The most common sleeping position of a patient

30 responses

Interaction of people

1. Patients and nurses

The most common shift you work in hospital

30 responses

The most common activity the patient is doing, when you visit them

30 responses

Most of the time, the door is

30 responses

Will the doctor/nurse knock on the door before entering the room?

30 responses

After they entered the room, will they close the door?

30 responses

If the patient is sleeping, what would you do?

30 responses

If the patient is having a meal, what would you do?

30 responses

3.Visitors

Most visitors will come during

30 responses

Does the hospital limit the visiting time?

30 responses

Does the hospital limit the number of visitors?

30 responses

